

The City Reliquary

MUSEUM AND CIVIC ORGANIZATION

PROUDLY INVITES YOU TO JOIN US IN CELEBRATION OF:

“Williamsburg’s 104th Annual Giglio Festival”

Saturday, July 7, 2007, 7:30 pm

HEAVEN TOUCHES BROOKLYN IN JULY

An opening night exhibition and film screening featuring award-winning TV Producer-Writer-Director TONY DE NONNO presenting his acclaimed, 1-Hour Nationally Broadcast PBS Documentary Film Eighteen years in the making and lovingly edited from more than 140 hours of film footage, this heartwarming film is narrated by world-renowned actors John Turturro and Michael Badalucco, Emmy Award-winning star of ABC’s “The Practice.”

Mr. De Nonno will entertain questions from the audience following his presentation.

and

DA FEAST

A film by Artemis Willis

A film celebrating a day in the life of the 85-foot statue known as the Giglio on its 100th anniversary in the streets of Williamsburg, Brooklyn.

Refreshments will be served. Free to the public. Seating is limited.

Saturday, July 14, 2007, 7:30 pm

MACARONI AND MAL OCCHIO (EVIL EYE)

Food, Faith, and Family—Growing up Italian-American

A One-Person play Written and Performed by LULU LOLO

Recapturing the love, laughter, and tears of her Italian-American childhood in East Harlem’s Little Italy, LuLu LoLo in a virtuoso performance—without intermission—and with inventive costume changes and songs—fills the stage with a non-stop parade of eleven family characters and vignettes such as Making Macaroni with Grandma LuLu, Great Aunt Lena Warding off the Evil Eye (Mal Occhio), The Seven Fishes of Christmas Eve Dinner and other scenes which take the audience back to the tenement life of her Italian immigrant grandparents.

Refreshments will be served. Suggested donation: $5.00. Seating is limited.

For directions and further information please contact:

The City Reliquary at 718-R U CIVIC (782-4842), info@cityreiquary.org
370 Metropolitan Avenue @ Havermeyer Street, Brooklyn, NY 11211